TAILORS' ASSOCIATION AND BUSINESS LEAGUE

New York Age

(Special to The New York Age).

Burlington, N. C.—M. K. Tyson, executive secretary of the National Association of Negro Tailors and Dressmakers of America, of which organization he is also the founder, announces receipt of an invitation from Dr. R. R. Moton, president of the National Negro Business League, to have the tailors' body to meet each year with the Business League. 7-29-22.

Secretary Tyson's association will meet in Washington, D. C., August 1 to 3, and the invitation will be presented to the national executive committee. It is probable a representative will be at Norfolk at the Business League meeting, and that the affiliation plans will be carried out in succeeding years.

Among the matters of interest at the Washington meeting will be the election of officers and Secretary Tyson will be a candidate to succeed himself for the fourth time. T. A. Burton of Baltimore is chairman of the executive committee, and R. Ross Burt of New York City is president.
